

National Association of REALTORS® Mandatory Quadrennial Ethics Training

The National Association of REALTORS® mandates that every REALTOR® in the country complete a Code of Ethics course once every 4 years in order to maintain their REALTOR® membership. This is better known as Quadrennial Ethics Training. The present four year renewal period for Cycle 3 runs from:

January 1, 2009 to December 31, 2012.

Any REALTOR® who fails to complete Quadrennial Ethics Training by December 31, 2012 shall be considered in violation of a membership duty. Their REALTOR® Membership shall be suspended until such time as the required training is completed.

If you have completed a three hour ethics course during the four year renewal period, please fax a copy of your Completion Certificate or proof of training to the Board office at 203-596-2243 so it can be properly recorded in your membership record.

If you need Code of Ethics training, there are several ways you can complete it.

1. The National Association of REALTORS® offers free online training to REALTOR® members which will fulfill your NAR obligation. Click the link below to learn more.

<http://www.realtor.org/mempolweb.nsf/pages/onlineethicstraining>

2. The Greater Waterbury Board of REALTORS®, Inc. offers online training at our website. Completing the ethics course at our website will not only satisfy your NAR requirement, it will also provide three hours of Continuing Education credit toward your 2012 CT Real Estate license renewal. Click the link below to learn more.

<http://gwrealtorboard.theceshop.com/online-education/connecticut/real-estate/broker-and-sales-license/continuing-education/courses.html>

3. The Greater Waterbury Board of REALTORS®, Inc. Institute for Real Estate also offers classroom instruction at our Board office. Completing the ethics course at our School will not only satisfy your NAR requirement, it will also provide three hours of Continuing Education credit toward your 2012 CT Real Estate license renewal. Course schedules will be posted on our website and on the MLS Message of the Day.